OUR INCOMPREHENSIBLE GOD

Lost in the silent solitude of recent days, I have been impressed anew with the vastness of our incomprehensible God. I find His incomprehensibility absolutely refreshing, especially in a day like ours where managerial moguls prance like peacocks and deified athletes strut their stuff. At a time when one-upmanship and human intimidation have become an art form it is delightful to be reminded anew that our God is the Lord. He is the maker of heaven and earth. He is the Lord...the Maker of heaven and earth, the Alpha and the Omega, the sovereign God of the entire universe.

And what are the benefits of such a realization? We stop reducing God to manageable terms. We are no longer tempted to manipulate Him or His Word. We don't have to explain Him and His will or defend Him and His ways.

In a world consumed with thoughts of itself, filled with people impressed with each other, having disconnected with the only Holy One worthy of praise, we need to catch a glimpse of Him who alone is awesome, yea, incomprehensible. He is our infinite, inexhaustible God. Any serious study of Him takes us to conscious awareness of our ignorance. The One we worship defies human analysis.

Let's discipline ourselves to think on these things refocusing our minds from the horizontal to the vertical. May we rise above the nonsense of human viewpoint and tedious worries about temporal issues and get on with thoughts that really matter. Then let's stay there.

It's time we got reacquainted with our Maker. AMEN

"And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen." Matthew 28:18 – 20
