How to Begin

“Most Christians overlook the place of scripture in prayer. But the more we saturate our minds with Scripture, the more we will become familiar with God’s way. Then it will be easier for us to distinguish His will from our thoughts. God desires that we know Him more than He desires to answer our prayers. God wants to use each prayer as a tool to familiarize us with His ways, His thoughts, and His desires. If we omit His Word in our prayer life, we miss the ultimate blessing of prayer – knowing God.

Ask God to give you a particular promise from Scripture dealing with your request. Make this the anchor of your faith in this area. Hold onto that verse regardless of what happens or how you feel. Live by it, pray by it, and refuse to give in till you have whatever it is God has promised.” AMEN.

Dr. Charles Stanley

“And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.” Matthew 28:18 – 20
