HIS GOLDEN RULE

“Do to others as you would have them do to you.”

Luke 6:31 (NIV)

Is the Golden Rule one of the rules that governs your household? Hopefully so. Obeying the Golden Rule is a proven way to improve all your relationships, including your relationship with the people who happen to live inside the four walls of your home. But the reverse is also true: if you or your loved ones ignore the Golden Rule, you’re headed for trouble, and fast.

Jesus taught us that we should treat other people (including our family members) in the same way that we want to be treated: that’s the Golden Rule. Yet sometimes, especially when we’re feeling pressured, tired, or upset, obeying the Golden Rule can seem like an impossible task-but it’s not.

God’s Word makes it clear” we are to treat our loved ones with respect, kindness, fairness, and courtesy. And He knows we can do so if we try. So if you’re wondering how you should treat your loved ones-or anybody else, for that matter—just ask the person you see every time you look into the mirror. The answer you receive will tell you exactly what to do. AMEN.

The mark of a Christian is that he will walk the second mile and turn the other cheek. A wise man or woman gives the extra effort, all for the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ. AMEN.

“Therefore, God’s chosen ones holy and loved, put on heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience.” AMEN. Colossians 3:12 (HCSB)

“And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.” Matthew 28:18 – 20
